

Disconnection of Gas, electricity, phone and solar

When I sell, who will inform the disconnection of Gas, electricity, phone and solar

Answer: The vendor. This has nothing to do with the government and therefore you have to disconnect it yourself.

However, water and is continuing and no disconnection is necessary. Any rates have been adjusted and money has been properly accounted for all parties on the day of settlement

How about solar?

Answer: You have to switch it off from the sun
